Why (in 25 words or less) do you believe yourself qualified to become a BAA Judge?

I do hereby certify, that to the best of my knowledge and belief, that the statements and information contained in this application for appointment to the BAA Association of Judges is true. I do hereby agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the BAA and its Judges Association. Failure to abide by such rules and regulations shall be sufficient for the Judges of the BAA to suspend or Revoke my appointment.

I will not move forward with any test arrangements until I have been advised, in writing, that I have been accepted as a Judge Trainee.

I will notify the chair of the Judges Association of all proposed training sessions. After securing the club and judges agreement to allow the training session, I will submit all details to the chair. (Show, Date of Show, Judge administrating the session for all three of the sessions).

I agree to take my final test at the National Show immediately after the completion of all requirements and training sessions under the rules in effect at the time.
